

Summer Events

We are excited to announce our continued sponsorship of the Summer Concert Series in Bethel, Brookfield, Monroe, and Woodbury, where our neighbors can come together to enjoy live music and celebrate our community.

You can pack a picnic or order from your favorite local eatery, bring a blanket and some chairs, and unwind to the sounds of summer. We'll be present at a few of the concerts, so be on the lookout for our Newtown Savings Bank table for special giveaways!

Student Checking

Open your account today!

Gear up for the new school year with our Student Checking Account, designed to make managing your finances as easy as acing your favorite class!

With no regular maintenance fees and a minimum deposit of $25 to open, it's a great way to learn about budgeting while achieving financial independence. Plus, enjoy convenient mobile banking - check your balance, transfer funds, pay bills and more!

Day of Action

We're no stranger to giving back to our community, so when the United Way of Coastal and Western Connecticut presented us with a project at Real Food CT, our team was excited to jump in.

Alongside tending to the garden and repairing the greenhouse, the Bank also made a contribution in support of Real Food CT's mission of providing fresh produce to area food pantries.

Home Loans for Veterans

There's truly no place like home, especially for our brave military men and women. We believe that every hero deserves a place to call their own and we're honored to assist our veterans and active-duty service members in achieving their homeownership dreams with VA Loans.

Let us help you find the home you deserve.

Investment Planning in Retirement

Investment planning during retirement is not the same as investing for retirement and, in many ways, is more complicated. There are two important factors you should consider; withdrawing income from retirement assets and balancing safety with growth. Read more
